STOVES, HEATERS, ETC.

STOVES! STOVES!
During the past week we have received the largest stock of Cook and Parlor Stoves, Ranges and Heaters ever brought to Lancaster city; they are all from the best manufacturers, and we guarantee every stove we sell. Having just completed two new stories to our already large store, we devote one of these to the exhibition and sale of stoves exclusively, and would be pleased to have our customers call and see our large and varied stock. We have the Celebrated Adams & Westlake Coal Oil Stoves, with Heater attached, which we are selling cheap; they are a good article and just the thing for a sick room. We have also a very large assortment of Zinc and Crystal Stove Boards, which we are selling at low prices. Our stock of Floor Oil Cloths never was so large and never contained so many choice patterns as now; we have some beautiful patterns in one yard wide for 25 cents per yard and up.

IT MUST GO.

SOME REASONS WHY IT SHOULD GO.

The Degeneracy of the Republican Party—

Ruling by the Aid of Money Alone—

"Money, money."

They cry "the Republican party must

go" saying exactly what thinking men feel.

It means more than it appears. At ## the outset observe: Not Republicans, but

the Republican party, must go.

Not intolerance of men, but of methods;

not hatred of principles, but of power

abused; not prejudices against a party for

what it has been, but contempt for what

it is, the meaning

It is not vindictive; it is not narrow

minded. It expresses a truth.

Long continuance in power is fatal to ## any party. We do not attempt to trace

the steps of this inevitable decay. We do

see that this decay of a mere party shall

by no means corrupt the body politic.

We find disease. We seek health.

There is no hope for the Republican ## party in itself. It must go.

The salt has lost its savor. Is there a Sun-

ner, or a Greeley, or a Phillips, or Lincoln, or a

Garrison, or a Seward to day giving the ## life of his great spirit to party counsels?

The "grand old party" has outlived its ## usefulness. It is no longer grand, it must ## die. Dyspepsia and Cramps, Belinskys and

Babekys, Howards and Shepherds, Kol-

lugs and Mahomes, Robespierres and Chan-

delles are that men, who, in spirit or in ## person, rule.

For what does it exist?

The great mass of its own nominal ad-

herents have lost faith in it. Thomas's

whose lives have been spent in its service

see that its usefulness is past.

Well for this party if its history had ## closed before 1876. In the eight years

past we will sum up the losses to the ## Republican party.

Men of conscience, men of honesty,

have been compelled to leave it.

Patience has ceased to be a virtue.

Placeholders may call it presumption,

the warhorse style of orators may begin their ## charges as old. But the times have ## changed and the people with them. Hy## pocrisy must go.

The Republican party must go.

The use of Money.

It has only been led by the corrupt use

of money.

The late secretary of the Republican

national convention says: "We expended

$100,000 in the October election of 1880

for us." Five thousand reliable Republi## cans scattered among the townspeople reported how much it would take to influence people to change their minds. We ## paid $20 to some and as high as $75 to others.

But then this wasn't a patch to New ## York, where our chief implements were

hot work, sharp trades, quiet bargain-

ing, and a golden stream from Stevenson's bank."

In corroboration of which comes another witness, Brady by name, the Republican second assistant postmaster general appointed by Grant, protected by Hayes, screened by Garfield and acquitted under Arthur. The witness admits that he raised $40,000 out of the Star Route contractors for the Indiana campaign in 1880 and says: "Dorsey went to General Arthur and he was willing to give written authority for the collection of the money, but the authority didn't last for a day." This was communicated to Garfield who then wrote to the Jay Hubbard letter. I didn't need any better authority, and I raised the money at once. As a matter of personal pride, I spent $5,000 out of my own pocket."

"Money, money, money."

Bainbridge writes to Dorsey that in failing

to send money to Maine he is "impairing

to the whole campaign."
